

1. What is the general form of wavefunction inside and outside a finite potential well?
2. What are bound states and what determines the number of bound states in a finite well?
3. How do we arrive at an expression for energy of the particle in a finite well from that of an infinite potential well?
4. Plot the first three bound eigen states for a particle in finite potential well.