

1. How do two charges interact even though they are far away from each other?
2. Are electric and magnetic fields real or they a mere construct to solve problems?
3. Which of the Maxwell's equation(s) (in the differential form) is homogenous?
4. What do the expressions  $\nabla \cdot E$  and  $\nabla \times E$  mean in vector fields?